

Shipping Policy

1. We ship internationally via courier service and the cost of shipment will be advised at time of your booking. We will dispatch your order within the UK by using a secure, signed for delivery service at the rate agreed. We also offer a free courier service within Central London. We ship only to residential or commercial addresses and are currently unable to deliver to PO Box addresses.
2. Your order is usually dispatched 7-10 days prior to the event date, however we are not able to specify exact dates and delivery of tickets could be as late as the day of the event. We will always advise you of the order status.
3. If you wish to collect your order for our offices, with prior arrangement.
4. Mission Impossible will not be responsible for any tickets that are lost or stolen once delivered.
